

We recently moved to Indiana and this law changed our lives. I actually can answer our phone again and speak to my children during dinner instead of our bank's telemarketer. Please consider citizen's lives before changing this in favor of big business.